

The most famous people of Switzerland

In the following cases are statements from famous people of Switzerland. Can you find the right photo and picture? You can play it as well as memory, just split the class in three groups and then they have to find the three cards which fit together.

"My name is Alfred. I'm the most famous Swiss person ever. I invented a very imported physics formula. People always tell me I look like the typically confused scientist."

"I'm a tennis player. During the last years I dominated the tennis world. In Switzerland I received the "athlete of the year" award twice and also a few "persons of the year awards". I always wear a headband, mostly black or white."

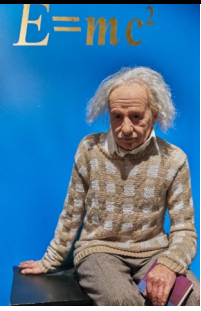

"My name is Nicolas. I created the most popular Swiss watch called swatch. Now I'm a millionaire and one of the most successful businessmen in Switzerland. "

"My name is Heidi and I'm the main character in the most popular story of Switzerland. Me, "Geissä-Peter" and my grandfather live in the mountains on a little farm. Together we have a lot of adventures. Every child in Switzerland knows me."

"I'm the founder of Switzerland. My life is the national hero story, everyone knows it. As a test, ordered from a bad king, I had to hit an apple placed on the head of my son with my bow and arrow. It was hard doing this, but I succeeded and so I was a free person and liberated Switzerland."

"My artist name is DJ Bobo and I'm the most famous musician in Switzerland. My songs are always very simple and in bad English, but I have earned a lot of money with them."

"I'm a very famous writer. I write books which are intellectual and give make people think about the meaning of life. My two bestsellers are called "Homo Faber" and "Stiller"."
